

About Us

What started small in 1979, with a single 600sq. ft. store and the simple idea of selling more for less, has grown over the last 40 years into one of the prominent retailers of the city. Committed to providing customers with the best grocery shopping experience possible. Four decades later, this philosophy remains integral to this family-owned and operated company.